Summer will be here before we know it, and summer means CHURCH CAMP! We especially love a couple of camps, and we've put information for you on the old communion table outside of the offices. You'll want to check each website for specifics, but generally these camps are for kids age 8 up through high school.

Ridge Haven Cono (www.ridgehaven.org/cono-camps) opened in 2018, and is located in northeast Iowa near Walker. It's a ministry of the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA). Ridge Haven Cono features tons of great activities, including an epic slip 'n slide, and brand new camper cabins with air conditioning. Campers will have a traditional camp experience, with reformed teaching and theology.

Camp Appanoose (campappanoose.org) is near Lake Rathbun in southern Iowa. Campers can pick from several interest-focused camps (extreme sports, martial arts, horse, aviation, etc.) and there are loads of great activities. Camp Appanoose's mission is to introduce the next generation to Christ!

Take a look and see which one might be the best for your family! We are so glad to offer financial assistance again this year to those who need it. Requests for scholarships must be made in writing to benaeduff@westkirk.org by the April 15 deadline.

Child Relief Foundation (CRF) to begin Spring fundraising campaign. CRF is the non-profit mission led by Westkirk member, Darius Togba, to bring Christ-centered secondary education to his hometown in Liberia. Be on the lookout in a future Weekly and in the April Shepherd for news about CRF's campaign beginning in April to inform the congregation about who we are, what we do and how to get involved.
